Area requirements to be completed prior to entering UVA Charlottesville:

All students pursuing this option will complete 51-53 semester hours of general education, a broad distribution of courses selected according to a College-wide formula, and the cultural activities requirement. Many of the courses which meet the general education requirements are prerequisites for advanced study in the various majors. All students should consult their academic advisor and the Catalog concerning the requirements of their prospective majors and select their general education courses accordingly. Note: One course may not be used to satisfy more than one of the listed area requirements.

English Composition: 6 semester hours. Complete ENG 1010 and 1020 with a grade of B or higher. Students who demonstrate advanced placement skills may fulfill this requirement by taking ENG 1030.

Foreign Language: 3-12 semester hours. Students must complete a foreign language through the 2020 level.

Natural Science: 8 semester hours. Students must complete any two transferable science courses each worth three credits or more, excluding NAS courses.

Mathematics: 6 semester hours. Students must complete any two transferable mathematics courses (MTH) each worth three credits or more numbered 1020 or higher, except MTH 1110, 1210, and 1950.

Humanities: 6 semester hours. Students must complete two transferable courses each worth three credits or more in any two of the following subject areas: a) literature (English courses numbered 2120 or above, or foreign literature); b) fine arts (art, dance, music, or theatre); or c) moral or philosophical or religious thought (political theory, philosophy or religion).

Social Science: 6 semester hours. Students must complete two transferable courses each worth three credits or more from courses in anthropology, economics, political science (except political theory), psychology, or sociology. The two courses must be in two different subject areas.

Historical Studies: 3 semester hours. Students must complete one transferable history (HIS) course worth three credits or more, excluding HIS 3020.

Non-Western Perspective: 3 semester hours. Students must complete one transferable course worth three credits or more that deals substantially with a culture other than Western (i.e., Africa, Asia, the Middle East, or a minority subculture of the West).
