UVA Financial Aid

Foundation Hall

The University is committed to making college affordable for Virginia families. Learn about how financial aid at UVA reduces the net cost for 70% of Virginia households.

Presented by Scott Miller, Director, Financial Aid

Information for New Counselors

Reading Room

For counselors with less than three years of experience. A panel of seasoned counselors will share their experiences in the field, discuss current issues, and provide advice on how to work with students and their families throughout the college search and application process.

Dan Geary, Director of College Counseling, Trinity Episcopal School

Alison Neil, School Counselor, Albemarle High School

Hannah Wolff, Career Center Specialist, Langley High School

Moderator: Jeannine Lalonde, Associate Dean of Admission, UVA

Athletic Admission and NCAA Compliance

C102

The college application process can be confusing, but many students must also navigate NCAA requirements. Gain insight on how to best advise student athletes on the nuances of college recruiting and athletic scholarships.

Presented by Jason Baum, Assistant Director for Compliance, Department of Athletics and Greg Roberts, Dean of Admission, University of Virginia

Additional Sessions: 10:45; 11:30, 1:15

Coalition Application

The Coalition is a diverse group of more than 140 distinguished colleges and universities that is committed to making college a reality for all high school students through a set of free online college planning tools that helps students learn about, prepare for, and apply to college.

Presented by Annie Reznik, Executive Director, The Coalition

President's Commission on Slavery and the University Seminar

At an April 2013 meeting of the President's Cabinet, Dr. Marcus Martin, Vice President and Chief Officer for Diversity and Equity, made a presentation on slavery at UVA and proposed that a commission be formed to further explore the topic and to make recommendations as to the next steps the University could take in response to this history. The formation of the President's Commission on Slavery and the University is the next step in building a broader institutional effort.

Kirt von Daacke, Assistant Dean & Professor (History), College of Arts & Sciences
